

Join us for a magical evening at the Santa Fe Opera House

La Traviata

by Giuseppe Verdi

Uniform Law Foundation Annual Event
Saturday, July 11, 2009

THE OPERA

La Traviata is the quintessential story of passionate young love, separation, and reconciliation. Internationally renowned French soprano Natalie Dessay returns to Santa Fe for her first-ever performance as Violetta in Verdi's most beloved opera.

Ms. Dessay is one of the stars of today's operatic world, thrilling audiences internationally as both a singer and an actress. The opera will receive all-new staging led by the director/designer team of Laurent Pelly and Chantal Thomas. Alfredo will be sung by Saimir Pirgu, with Laurent Naouri singing the role of Germont.

THE OPERA HOUSE

The Santa Fe Opera House is a nationally acclaimed state-of-the-art, open-air theater surrounded by the Sangre de Cristo and Jemez Mountains. This breathtaking venue and the spectacular sunsets provide for unforgettable performances, and La Traviata is sure to be no exception!

THE EVENT

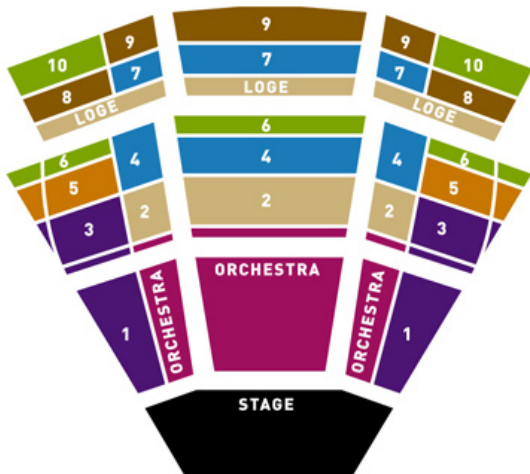

Please join us for what promises to be a truly memorable evening under the stars. Tickets are limited, and will be sold on a first come, first served basis. A portion of the ticket price benefits the Uniform Law Foundation (ULF). Ticket price does not include dinner, or other food and beverages. Please make your own dinner arrangements prior to the opera; session will end at 5:00pm to accommodate early dinner reservations. Buses will depart the hotel at 7:45pm; opera begins at 9:00pm and lasts approximately three hours.
